Miss Irene Arnold Dies At Home Near Middleville

Middleville—Miss Irene Arnold, 78, died today at her home just south of here on the Middleville-Little Falls road, after a long illness. She was born in the town of Fairfield on Feb. 8, 1866, the daughter of the late Nathan and Mary Harris Arnold. She had lived in this vicinity all her life, and was a member of the Universalist church and the Kuyahoorra Chapter, OES. Her only survivor is a brother, Nathan, with whom she resided. The funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday from the Autenrith Funeral Home in Newport, while the body will be placed in the Middleville vault to await burial.
