FREDERICK W. ASHENHURST

The injuries received by Frederick W. Ashenhurst of Little Falls, when he was struck by an automobile on the Middleville road, proved fatal [on Wed. 4 Jun 1941]. He was in his sixty-seventh year and for many years had been in the plumbing business in Little Falls. During the Harding, Coolidge and Hoover administrations, he was postmaster, serving twelve years. He was chairman of the Republican City Committee for many years. He was a member of the Universalist Church. He is survived by his widow [Mary Golden Ashenhurst] and three sons. The Rev. Howard B. Gilman conducted the funeral service.
