

[Austin, Alonzo A.]

Well Known Veteran Dead

After an illness extending over a period of several months, Alonzo A. Austin, a long time resident of Scipio Center, passed away yesterday. Mr. Austin was a veteran of the Civil war, having enlisted in Company A, Nineteenth regiment Volunteer Infantry, afterwards being transferred to Battery 2, Third Artillery. Besides the widow [Helen Sherman Austin] he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Lewis E. Webster and Mrs. Burdette Stone, of Moravia, and two sons, Edgar S. of Syracuse and Albert A. Austin of Auburn. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Democrat-Argus, Auburn NY, Fri. 23 Jun 1905

Was Buried at Scipio Center

The funeral of Alonzo A. Austin was held at the Universalist church in Scipio Center Saturday at 2:30 p.m. There was a large attendance. The church choir sang two selections. The pulpit was draped with the national flag and a profusion of flowers was displayed on the platform. The bearers were Francis Flynn, Pardon T. Shorkley, M. M. Palmer, Leonard Williams, William Tripp and Cester Sincerbeaux, all members of Selah Cornwell post, G.A.R., of Scipio Center. Burial was made in the cemetery at Scipio Center.

Democrat-Argus, Auburn NY, Tue. 27 Jun 1905