

[Austin, Charles James]

FORMER POLICE CHIEF OF DOLGEVILLE DIES

Former Chief of Police Charles J. Austin, 67, of Dolgeville, died Friday morning in a Utica hospital of heart disease.

Born in Middlesprite December 14, 1863, he went to the village many years ago. He served at one time as chief of police and was also street commissioner. His wife's maiden name was Eliza Covell.

He leaves three sons, Howard and Carl Austin, Dolgeville, and James, Gloversville; a daughter, Gladys, Dolgeville, and two brothers, William J., Dolgeville, and James H., West Amboy.

The funeral will be held Monday afternoon, Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton, Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Dolgeville cemetery.

Morning Herald, Gloversville NY, Mon. 17 Nov 1930

Transcribed on 22 Jun 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY