

[Austin, Mary D.]

Mrs. Mary D. Austin

Mrs. Mary D. Austin, widow of Stephen Austin, died Wednesday at her home at 547 State street, where she resided with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Magee. She had been ill for several months. She was born in the town of Livingston, but had lived in this city for a number of years and was a member of the First Universalist church. For the past three months she had ben confined to her bed and while her death was not unexpected it has brought sadness to all who knew her, as her kindness and goodness and sweet disposition was typical of her life.

Columbia Republican, Hudson NY, Fri. 1 May 1914

Transcribed on 6 Nov 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY