

[Babcock, Elwin P.]

ELWIN P. BABCOCK

Elwin P. Babcock, 58, died Oct. 15, 1953, at his home in Bouckville.

He was born July 14, 1895, in Madison, a son of Charles B. and Evelyn Phelps Babcock. He worked for the Ontario and Western Railroad for 34 years. He was station agent and operator at Oriskany Falls for 10 years.

He was a member of Universalist Church, Madison.

He leaves his wife and a daughter, Mrs. Ernest Lewis, Munnsville; a son, Howard E. Babcock, Oriskany Falls; a brother, Seward Babcock, Madison; five grandchildren.

The funeral was held at 2 Monday from his home in Bouckville with the Rev. Kenneth A. Babcock, Buffalo, a nephew, officiating with the Rev. Adolph Knapp, Madison, assisting. Burial was in Madison Cemetery.

Waterville Times, Waterville NY, Thu. 22 Oct 1953

Transcribed on 4 Oct 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY