

[Babcock, Pearl M.]

MISS PEARL BABCOCK

CENTRAL SQUARE—Miss Pearl M. Babcock, 71, died Monday in Crouse-Irving Hospital, Syracuse, after a long illness.

A life resident of this area, she was housekeeper and nurse assistant to the late Dr. and Mrs. Wilcox of Central Square. For the last seven years she resided with her nephew Carlton Babcock of Hastings Center.

Miss Babcock was a member of the Universalist Church of Central Square.

Besides her nephew, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. May Allen, and a brother, Lyman Babcock, both of Hastings Center, and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Watson funeral home, Rev.
Warren B. Lovejoy officiating. Burial will be in Coit cemetery in the spring.

Palladium-Times, Oswego NY, 16 Feb 1960

Transcribed on 29 Apr 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY