

[Bacon, Addie]

MISS ADDIE BACON

Miss Addie Bacon, who had been making her home for several months past with her friend, Miss Hagen, at Ellicottville, N.Y., died last Monday following a shock of apoplexy a few days previous. Her age was 75 years.

She was one of two daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. A.G. Bacon and was born in their farm home at West Perry on January 18, 1857. Her sister, Margaret, died about 30 years ago.

Miss Bacon had been a resident of this village during the past 24 years. She was a woman of fine character and genial disposition, winning the warm friendship of all who knew her.

She was a devoted member of the Universalist Church, in which she took an active interest as long as her health permitted.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.R. Watrous, 47 Borden Avenue. Rev. J.A. Judge, her pastor, will officiate and interment will be in the family lot in the West Perry cemetery.

The only near relatives who survive are two nephews, Ralph and Noble Buckland.

Universalists Receive Legacy in Addie Bacon Will

Miss Addie Bacon, whose death occurred recently, left a legacy of $2000 to be used by the trustees in carrying on the work of the Universalist Church as their judgment might dictate. She also left $1000 to the Universalist State Convention, the interest on which is to be used for the local church. Her estate was appraised at approximately $12,000, the remainder to be shared by two nephews, children of her deceased sister, Maggie, who was Mrs. Walter Buckland.
