

[Bacon, Lena Lillian Green]

MRS. CHARLES BACON

Mrs. Charles Bacon, 48, of Ridgeway, died suddenly Friday evening in Lockport City Hospital following an operation. Born in the town of Yates, she had been a resident of Ridgeway for many years and was a member of the Ridgeway Universalist Church.

She is survived by her husband; three sons, Pvt. Fred Pogel, stationed with the U.S. Army at Camp Swift, Texas; George H. Pogel of Lewiston and Charles Edward Bacon, Jr., at home; one daughter, Mrs. Frederick Clack at Lockport; two brothers, George Green of Charlotte, and Earl Green of Medina; two sisters, Mrs. Floyd Richards of Medina and Mrs. Bertha Furness of Ridgeway, and one grandson, Lawrence Wain Pogel of Niagara Falls.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon by Rev. George Gay. Burial was in Bates Road Cemetery.

Medina Tribune, Medina NY, Thu. 22 Apr 1943

Mrs. Charles Bacon

The death of Mrs. Lena Lillian Bacon, aged forty-eight years, wife of Charles Bacon of Ridgeway and an aunt of Norman L. Green of Holley, occurred unexpectedly following an operation in the Lockport City Hospital, Friday evening, April 16, 1943. In ill health all winter, she was admitted to the hospital Thursday.

Mrs. Bacon was born in the Town of Yates, the daughter of Robert and Hannah Green, natives of England. She has been a resident of Ridgeway for man years, and was a member of the Ridgeway Home and School Club.

Surviving are her husband; three sons, Pvt. Fred Pogel, stationed with the U.S. Army at Camp Swift, Texas, George H. Pogel of Lewiston and Charles Edward Bacon Jr., at home; one daughter, Mrs. Frederick Clack of Lockport; two brothers, George Green of Charlotte, and Earl Green of Medina; two sisters, Mrs. Floyd Richards of Medina, and Mrs. Bertha Furness of Ridgeway; and one grandson, Lawrence Wain Fogel [Pogel] of Niagara Falls.

Funeral services were held from her home Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. George Gay of the Ridgeway Universalist church officiating, with burial in Bates Road Cemetery.

Holley Standard, Holley NY, Thu. 22 Apr 1943