

[Bailey, Fransania Mabel Marble]

Victor, N. Y.—The death of Mrs. Albert S. Bailey occurred on Wednesday afternoon of last week, after an illness of several weeks' duration. Mrs. Bailey was a true Christian woman, possessed of a kind, charitable nature, and was always ready to help others, and she is mourned by a large number of loving friends. She was an active worker in St. Paul's Universalist church, and expressed much interest in every enterprise of the church. Mrs. Bailey was about 65 years of age. She was formerly Miss Fransania Mabel Marble, and her early life was spent in the vicinity of Baptist Hill, but many years of her life had been spent in this town. Besides her husband, one daughter survives, Mrs. Porter B. Rawson, both residing here. The funeral services were held on Friday afternoon at the family home in East Main street, and were conducted by Rev. W. H. Skeels, pastor of the Universalist church. Interment was made in Baptist Hill.
