

[Bailey, Volney T.]

VOLNEY BAILEY

Volney Bailey, 89, a resident here for many years, died Friday, January 12, in Warsaw, where he had been staying.

Private funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in the Eaton funeral home, Rev. Julia Tobey of the Universalist church officiating, and burial was in the family plot in Hope cemetery.

Mr. Bailey was born in Nunda May 28, 1851, eldest of two sons born to William and Susan Teeple Bailey. In the early part of his married life he was on a farm in Nunda where he was united in marriage to Miss Lyda Neville, a school teacher in that community.

Forty-four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Bailey and family moved to Perry. In later years Mr. Bailey lived on farms in the vicinity of Darien.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Roy Spellicy and Mrs. James Bell, both of Perry and a brother Wesley of Nunda.
