

[Bard, Albert Delos]

ALBERT D. BARD

Albert D. Bard died suddenly Wednesday afternoon of last week at about 4:30 o'clock, while he was engaged in threshing on his farm in the town of Laurens, as the result of a heart ailment with which he had long been afflicted.

Albert Delos Bard, oldest son of the six children born to Charles and Susan (Mills) Bard, was born June 15, 1864, in the town of Laurens at the Bard homestead, where he spent his entire life. Mr. Bard was never married. In early life he was associated with his father on the farm and during the many years of invalidism of the latter, he gave him and his mother the best of care. Since their passing, he had continued to operate the farm, living alone.

The deceased was a man of unfailing sympathy and kindness. In the neighborhood of his home he was especially esteemed as he was ever ministering to the wants of others as long as his health permitted.

The immediate surviving relatives are one sister, Mrs. Albert. H. Nichols of Morris, and two brothers, Charles Bard of Haverhill, Mass., and Lafayette Bard of West Oneonta, and several nieces and nephews to all of whom much sympathy will be extended.

The funeral services, conducted by the Rev. F. G. Leonard of the Morris Universalist church were held at Sloan's Funeral parlors Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in the family plot in the new part of Hillington cemetery.

Otsego Farmer & Republican, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 26 Oct 1934