

[Barker, Rosalia Risley]

(Madison) The death of Rosalia Risley, wife of George Barker, occurred Saturday, March 18 at her home on South street after a long illness. She was 68 years old. Mrs. Barker was one of the organizers of the James Madison Chapter of D.A.R. and an ex-regent of the chapter. While in health she was a ready and willing worker for the interest of the chapter and an active member of the Universalist Church. She leaves, besides her husband, to mourn her loss, two brothers, Henry Risley of Earlville and Byron Risley of Hamilton, several nieces and nephews and a host of friends. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at her home and interment was made in the family plot at Madison cemetery.
