

[Barnard, Sarah E. Burr]

Mrs. L. L. Barnard

Mrs. Sarah Burr Barnard, a brief notice of whose passing to the higher life, appeared in last week's Standard, was born in Barre, N. Y., December 11, 1864; was united in marriage to Lee L. Barnard, March 20, 1883, and on June 14, 1930, her spirit passed on to join that of her son, Stanley, who preceded her on September 20, 1926.

Surviving her beside[s] her husband and her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Holman, both of whom gave her such loving care during her illness, are two grandsons, Donald and Wilbur Barnard, and her sister, Mrs. Ida Gillis, also several nephews and nieces.

As long as her health permitted, she was an active member of the Universalist church and of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and her bright, cheerful disposition, which enabled her to bear her long illness with such wonderful fortitude, endeared her to a host of friends who sincerely join her bereaved family in sorrow over their loss, and whose sympathy was beautifully expressed in the exquisite flower offerings which nearly filled the room in which her body rested during the services, which were conducted by Rev. Lewis H. Robinson.

Interment was made in Hillside cemetery.
