

[Barrett, Gustavus]

HENDERSON

—Tuesday, Dec. 29, Gustavus Barrett, a much esteemed resident of this town, passed on to the other life. He had been confined to the house two weeks, although he had been in poor health for some time. He was a member of Henderson grange, and an active member of the Universalist church, working untiringly in its interests until the very day he was stricken. He was about 76 years of age and had been one of the successful farmers of this town, and having gained a competency, moved to the village, renting his farm. He leaves a wife, no children having blessed their union. Rev. D. L. Fisher of Potsdam conducted the service from the Universalist church Thursday at 12 o'clock. The remains were placed in the vault at Roberts Corners.
