

[Barrett, Rhoda Barnes]

HENDERSON

—Death has again entered our little village and taken an old and much esteemed resident. Mrs. Rhoda Barnes Barrett passed away on Wednesday morning. She had been failing for two months and was anxious to go. She was 80 years of age. She was a member of the Universalist church and loved her church and worked for, and was a liberal supporter of it as long as she lived. She was a member of the Eastern Star and a charter member of the Henderson Grange. Her funeral was held from the Universalist church Friday afternoon, Rev. D. L. Fisher coming from Potsdam to conduct the service. There were many floral offerings from the church and the different orders and friends. A nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Lansing Barnes, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Becker of Point Peninsula came to attend the funeral. Mrs. Wallace Harris of Hounsfield also came to attend the funeral and was a guest of Mrs. Hattie Harrington during her stay. The body was placed in the vault at Roberts Corners and will be buried beside her husband, Gustave Barrett, who departed this life two years ago.
