

[Barron, James S.]

J. S. Barrows.

James S. Barron, who founded the firm of James S. Barron & Co., manufacturers of wooden ware, at Jay and Greenwich Streets, in 1849, died yesterday at his home, No. 329 West Twenty-second Street. He was eighty years old, and had been active in his business up to the time of his death, in spite of the fact that he had been blind for the past nine years. He attended schools in New York and displayed much interest in educational affairs. At one time he gave prizes to schools to present to pupils as rewards of merit.

He was one of the founders of St. John's Guild of the Board of Trade and Transportation and of the Excelsior Savings Bank. He was one of the oldest living members of the Church of the Divine Paternity [Fourth Universalist Society].

Evening Post, New York NY, Thu. 27 Apr 1905

Transcribed on 2 Dec 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY