

[Bauder, Frank W.]

FRANK W. BAUDER

Fort Plain—Frank W. Bauder, 72, prominent business man and lifelong resident of this section, died July 5, 1939 at his home in West St. Death was caused by a heart attack.

Mr. Bauder was born at Frey's Bush, Town of Minden, a son of John G. and Eliza Zoller Bauder. For many years he was president of the Farmers & Mechanics Bank of Fort Plain, which closed in August, 1931.

For a number of years Mr. Bauder conducted a stock farm at Frey's Bush and moved to Fort Plain 10 years ago, where he was interested in the creamery business for some time. He was a member of Fort Plain Universalist Church, Masonic Lodge and Frey's Bush Grange. He was also president and a director of Mohawk Valley Farmers Fire Insurance Company and a director of Farmers Fire Insurance Company of the Town of Minden.

Besides his widow [Meeta E. Devoe] he leaves a son Harry [D.], Canajoharie, and a daughter, Mrs. [Edna Mae] Deforest White of Sprout Brook.

The funeral will be held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday from his home, the Rev. William A. Haney, Universalist Church pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. William Hammereley, pastor of the Methodist Church. Burial will be in Fort Plain Cemetery.

Observer-Dispatch, Utica NY, Thu. 6 Jul 1939

Transcribed on 6 Feb 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY