

[Beacham, Thomas Philip]

Thomas Philip Beacham

Thomas Philip Beacham, 82, a former resident of Auburn, died this morning at the family home, Valentine's Corners, Town of Owaso, following an attack of heart trouble.

Mt. Beacham was born in England. He came to Auburn when 14 years of age. Becoming a meat cutter, he worked for Michael Walker and for C. G. Meaker. For the past 21 years he had resided on a farm at Valentine's Corners. He lived for many years in Maple Street.

Mr. Beacham is survived by his wife, Uretta Holmes Beacham; one daughter, Mrs. Willis Kishpaugh of Syracuse; one son, Claude Beacham of Owasco, and two grandchildren, Ronald Kishpaugh of Syracuse and Frank Beacham of Auburn.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, at the Hemans Funeral home in East Genesee Street. Rev. Plato T. Jones, acting pastor of the First Universalist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Soule Cemetery.
