

[Belfield, Elsie A.]

BRIDGEWATER
Death of Elsie A. Belfield

Jan. 31—Miss Elsie A. Belfield, who has been sick since midsummer, with inflammatory rheumatism and complications, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. [and Julia] Belfield, west of this village, at mid-day Saturday. She passed her sixteenth birthday January 14. She had attended the local Union school and the district school at Beaver Creek, near her home. She was also a member of the Universalist Sunday school. Her bereaved parents have one daughter [Myra] and two sons [Frank and Bert] remaining. The funeral was held at the Universalist church Sunday at 10 o'clock, Rev. DeWitt Lamphear officiating. Six girl friends were the bearers. Many friends and relatives were present. Their neighbors are to be thanked for the special effort they have made to help the family in this their deep affliction.

Brookfield Courier, Brookfield NY, Sat. Wed. 1 Feb 1911

Transcribed on 5 Oct 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY