

[Bevier, Charles]

CHARLES BEVIER

Charles Bevier, 81, of 25 Court street, died suddenly Tuesday afternoon, following an attack of heart trouble.

Mr. Bevier was born in Owasco. For the past 13 years he has made his home in Auburn, formerly having resided in Geneva, from 1885 to 1915. Mr. Bevier was foreman at the Standard Optical Company of Geneva. He was a member of First Universalist church of this city.

Mr. Bevier is survived by his wife, Florence Bedell Bevier; one son, Edwin A. Bevier of Canandaigua; two daughters, Mrs. Raymond Williams of Minneapolis, Minn.; and Mrs. Luke Allen of Willseyville, N. Y.; two sisters, Miss Olivia Bevier of Niles and Mrs. Charles Denny of Ithaca; one brother, Ernest G. Bevier of Niles; and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at (1?) o'clock Friday afternoon at the rooms of Lester E. Brew, 47 Clark Street. Rev. Hal T. Kearns, pastor of First Universalist church, will officiate. Burial will in Owasco Rural Cemetery. Omission of flowers has been requested.

Friends have been invited to call at 47 Clark Street, between 3 and 5 and 7 and 9 on Thursday.

Citizen-Advertiser, Auburn NY, Wed. 6 Dec 1939

Transcribed on 4 Apr 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY