

[Billington, Jay C.]

Lifelong Resident of Fort Plain Dies In Hospital

Fort Plain, March 28.—Jay Billington, 58, a lifelong resident of this section, died Wednesday night in a Utica hospital after an illness of a few days with influenza which developed into pneumonia. The remains were brought to this village by B. Gray & Sons, and the body taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Yerdon, Center Street.

Mr. Billington is survived by one son, Harvey Billington, and three grandchildren of Iliion; also two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Yerdon and Mrs. Francis S. Miller, of Fort Plain.

The funeral will be held from the home of Mrs. Yerson Saturday at 2:30 p.m., Rev. Rufus H. Dix, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. The interment will be made in the local cemetery.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Fri. 29 Mar 1929

Transcribed on 9 Jan 2019 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY