

[Bingham, George]

DEATHS.

In Rochester, on the 11th of November last, in the 20th year of his age, GEORGE, eldest son of Nathaniel and Mary [Kempshall] Bingham. The deceased was a young man of very amiable and lovely character, and highly respected and beloved by all who knew him. But few of earth's children ever suffered under the influence of a more painful disease, which had been preying upon him for eight years. But he bore all with extraordinary fortitude and resignation till the last, and then bid adieu to his affectionate parents, family and friends for the spirit land, where pains and sorrows are no more. His funeral was attended in the Universalist church on the following day, and the consolations of the Gospel tendered to a large congregation of relatives and friends, by the Rev. J. [Jacob] Chase, pastor of the society who worship in said church.
