

[Bird, William]

WILLIAM BIRD, JR.

Former Resident of Byron Passed Away at His Home in Clarendon.

North Byron, April 8.—William Bird, Jr., died at his home in Clarendon on Wednesday after an illness from pneumonia and pleurisy, aged 54 years.

Mr. Bird was born in Byron and had always lived here with the exception of a few years in Clarendon. He is survived by his wife [Alice Lane Bird]; five sons, George of Kansas, Ray, Walter, Everett and Victor of Clarendon; three daughters, Misses Lizzie, Lettie and Myrta of Clarendon; his father, William Bird of Clarendon; four brothers, John Bird of Ellensburg, Wash., James Bird of Bergen, Fred Bird of Clarendon, and Richard Bird of Byron; and two sisters, Mrs. William Clark of Clarendon and Mrs. Burt Clements of North Bergen.

The funeral will be held from the house on Saturday at 2 p.m. The interment will be in the North Byron cemetery.

Batavia Daily News, Batavia NY, Thu. 8 Apr 1909

CLARENDON

The funeral of Wm. Bird, Jr. took place last Saturday afternoon, April 10, Rev. Frank J. Angel, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating. The many friends present and the beautiful floral tributes bore witness to the esteem in which Mr. Bird was held. The relatives desire to thank one and all for the many expressions of kindness shown in their time of bereavement.

Holley Standard, Holley NY, Thu. 15 Apr 1909

Transcribed on 18 Dec 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY