

[Bishop, Helen T. Potter]

Mrs. Helen T. Bishop

Mrs. Helen T. Bishop, 92, passed away Thursday morning, Dec. 1, 1949, at her home in Branchport.

Retired for some time, she taught school many years in the township of Jerusalem. She spent her lifetime in Jerusalem except for about 20 years when she lived in Penn Yan, returning to Branchport about 10 years ago.

Born Feb. 15, 1857, she was the daughter of Lewis and Lovina Conklin Potter.

A member of the [former] Universalist church, she is survived by one niece and five nephews: Mrs. Charles White of Branchport; Lewis, Edgar and Emory Potter, all of Penn Yan; Harold Potter of Rochester; and Walter Walrath of Branchport.

Funeral services were held at the Weldon Funeral Home in Penn Yan Saturday, Dec. 3, at 2:30 p.m. Rev. Francis W. Glenister, pastor of the Penn Yan Baptist church, officiated. Burial at Bitely cemetery, Branchport.
