

[Blackmar, Jane A. Tuthill]

Jane A. Blackmar

Jane A. Tuthill, the wife of Henry C. Blackmar, whose family were attendants at All Souls Universalist Church, died yesterday at her home, after a protracted illness. She was 71 years old and was born in Manhattan. For thirty-five years after her marriage to Mr. Blackmar she lived in the Nineteenth Ward, removing to Flatbush about five years ago. The Rev. Dr. L. Ward Brigham will officiate at the funeral services to take place privately at her home. Mrs. Blackmar leaves her husband, two daughters, Edna M. and Lillian A.; two sons, Harry T. and Eldert E., and two sisters, Mrs. A.C. Hawley and Mrs. H.C. Nelson, all of Brooklyn.

Brooklyn Daily Eagle, New York NY, Wed. 31 Jan 1912

Transcribed on 29 Nov 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY