

[Blackmon, Frederick William Atwater]

Death of F. W. A. Blackmon.

Frederick W. A. Blackmon died at his residence near this village on Thursday morning, May 10th, aged 70 years. Mr. Blackmon was born in Hammond and was a son of the late Dr. Blackmon, one of the first physicians of the town. Mr. Blackmon spent his entire lifetime in Hammond and was a well-known and highly respected citizen. He was a man of pronounced temperance views and for many years was license commissioner of the town. He was a member of the Universalist church. A wife, two sons (G. A. Blackmon of Lowville, and George Blackmon, of Theresa,) and two daughters, Mrs. D. D. Moyer, of Hammond, and Mrs. W. [Willard] C. Selleck, of Denver, Col, mourn his death. The funeral service was held on Monday last and was conducted by Rev. D. L. B. Libby and Rev. Mrs. Libby, of Watertown. Rev. Mr. Ferguson, of the Presbyterian church, was also present and took part in the services. Interment in the Hammond cemetery. Mr. Blackmon was in failing health for the past two years. He leaves a large circle of relatives, friends and neighbors, who held him in high esteem.

Hammond Advertiser, Hammond NY, Thu. 17 May 1894

Transcribed on 17 Oct 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY