

[Bloodough, Frank C.]

FRANK C. BLOODOUGH

Dolgeville—Frank C. Bloodough, 75, died Jan. 24, 1944, in his home, 141 N. Main, following a heart attack.

He was born in Norway, Herkimer County, son of Myron and Camelia Seelay Bloodough.

Recently he had been engaged in the sale of tree nursery products. Prior to that he worked for 25 years as superintendent of Dolgeville Cemetery.

He attended the Universalist Church. On June 30, 1904 he married Nettie Bloodough who died Dec. 15, 1934. On Aug. 10, 1935 he married Mrs. Jessie Shedd who survives with a brother Claude, Jordanville, and a sister, Mrs. Fred Timmerman, Salisbury Center.

Funeral services will be conducted in his home at 3 p.m. Thursday with burial in Dolgeville Cemetery in the spring.

Observer-Dispatch, Utica NY, Tue. 25 Jan 1944

Transcribed on 18 Oct 2023 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY