

[Bloodough, Nettie Bloodough]

MRS. FRANK BLOODOUGH

Following an extended illness caused by a complication of diseases, Mrs. Frank Bloodough passed away Saturday morning at 8 at her home on North Main street. All of her life was spent in this neighborhood. She was born September 5, 1868, on what is now known as the Servidone farm, a short distance west of this village, and was a daughter of the late Alexander and Emma Steele Bloodough. She was married June 30, 1904, to Mr. Bloodough.

The deceased was a member of the Universalist church. Her husband is the only survivor. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Universalist church. Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton officiated and interment made in the local cemetery.
