[Blount, Nancy]

DEATHS.

In Augusta, January 23d, Mrs. NANCY BLOUNT, consort of Mr. John Blount, aged 73 years. She was among the first in this country that embraced the Abrahamic faith; and after living in the enjoyment of its consolations for a number of years, she found it as full of comfort in the hour of death, as it has been useful and happifying in life. She was a faithful companion, an affectionate mother, a pious Christian, and an ornament to society—charitable to the poor and afflicted. Her funeral was attended on the 25th; sermon by the writer.

Also—on the 3d inst., Mr. JOHN BLOUNT, consort of the above, in the 73d year of his age—one of the first settlers in this country, and for many years a worthy member of the Universalist society in Clinton. In closing his earthly pilgrimage, he gave satisfactory evidence that the faith which had rendered his life cheerful, imparted perfect peace to the dying hour. Funeral on the 5th—sermon by
