

[Boardman, Olivia]

Mrs. Olivia Boardman

Mrs. Olivia Boardman, wife of Daniel A. Boardman, died at the home of her son, Frederick W. Boardman, 131 Hobart street, shortly after midnight last night. Mrs. Boardman has been ill for about a year. For many years she had been a resident of Oneida, and her death will be regretted there as well as in this city. She had been living with her son for 12 years. She had been unable to leave her bed for about eight weeks, and death was due to heart trouble. Mrs. Boardman was born in Laurens, Otsego county, August 14, 1840. For many years her husband conducted a harness shop in Oneonta, and for a short time in this city. She also lived in Bridgewater for a brief period. Mrs. Boardman was married in 1865 and her husband passed away about (12?) years ago. She was a member of the Universalist Church of Oneonta. Besides her son, Mrs. Boardman is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Cook of West Oneonta, and three grandchildren.
