

[Bork, Sarah Wentworth]

Mrs. Sarah A. Bork, widow of Chas. Bork, who died at her home, 210 W. Bloomfield St., on Thursday afternoon, had been confined to her bed the last four months with creeping paralysis, the cause of death. She was born near Verona, Dec. 15, 1838, a daughter of the late Mr. & Mrs. Eliphalet [and Ophelia] Wentworth. She married Charles Bork of Lee on Dec. 30, 1857, and the couple moved to Western where they resided until Jan. 2, 1904, when they came to Rome. Mr. Bork died on Jul. 4, 1907. Mrs. Bork attended the Universalist Church and was a woman of kind disposition and charitable nature and had a host of friends who will mourn her death. She is survived by an only daughter, Cora Coventry of Ridge Mills, who had been with her mother constantly during her last illness, also one sister, Mrs. Mary L. Carr of Mandan, ND, and two grandsons.
