

[Bouton, Belva Gage]

SCHUYLER LAKE

In this village Saturday afternoon, April 24, occurred the death of Belva, wife of Ralph Bouton, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses [and Ada Edick] Gage, in the seventeenth year of her age. She had been ill about two weeks with a complication of diseases, terminating in pneumonia. The funeral service was held at the [Universalist] stone church Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. C. [Charles] H. Vail. Besides her husband she leaves a little daughter [Etta] of five months; also parents, grandparents, brother and sister.

Richfield Springs Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Sat. 28 Apr 1904

Transcribed on 12 Feb 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY