

[Bowen, Hezekiah]

DEATHS.

In Sennett, N.Y., Oct. 16th, 1864, HEZEKIAH BOWEN, Esq., aged 75 years and 3 months. Mr. Bowen had resided in Sennett over fifty years, and was a man of sterling honesty and moral worth. In his religious sentiments he identified himself with the believers in the final salvation of all souls. He has passed away, but his influence for good still lives. He leaves a wife [Deborah], several children¹ and many friends to mourn his departure. His funeral was attended Oct. 18th, by a large concourse of people, to whom was preached a gospel sermon by Rev. J. [Jacob] H. Harter of Auburn, N.Y.
