

[Bowen, Sarah]

NEW HARTFORD

DEC. 7.—At her home in this place Friday occurred the death of Sarah, wife of Ebenezer B. Bowen. She was born in New Hartford 76 years ago and had always lived here, and attended the Universalist church. She was well known, possessed a bright, amiable and lovable disposition, was highly esteemed by all who knew her and her very many friends learned of her death with expressions of sincere regret. She was married Oct. 18, 1842, and on that date in 1892, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen celebrated their golden wedding. She is survived by her husband, who is upwards of 80 years of age; four sons, A. E. Bowen of Utica, B. M. Bowen of Washington Mills, and W. R. and Arthur of Pleasant street; two daughters, Mrs. Sarah Ensworth of New York Mills, and Mrs. Ophelia James of Utica, and one sister, Jane Richards of New Hartford. She also leaves twelve grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Semi-Weekly Citizen, Rome NY, Tue. 8 Dec 1896

Transcribed on 25 Oct 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY