

[Bowman, Adelaide]

ADELAIDE BOWMAN, CHURCH WORKER, 93

Mrs. Adelaide Bowman, for 30 years a resident of Brooklyn, died yesterday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. George I. Wooley, 111 St. John's Place, after a brief illness. Born in Natchez, Miss., she was the widow of Robert Bowman, member of the firm of Manning-Bowman, of Meriden, Conn., electrical appliance dealers. Mrs. Bowman, who was 93, had lived in Meriden until she moved to Brooklyn. Her daughter is the wife of the secretary of the committee on character and fitness for admission to the bar of the Appellate Division, and for 21 years was a member of the faculty of Brooklyn Law School. Mrs. Bowman was formerly active in the work of All Souls Universalist Church and its various societies. In addition to Mrs. Wooley, she is survived by another daughter, Caroline M., and a son, Robert B. The Rev. Gordon C. Reardon, pastor of the Church of Our Father, will officiate at the funeral service tomorrow night in the home of Mrs. Wooley. Interment will be in the Walnut Grove Cemetery, Meriden, Conn.
