EUGENE BOYCE DIES AT LANSINGBURG HOME AFTER LENGTHY ILLNESS

Eugene R. Boyce, Troy tinsmith, died at his residence, 784 Fourth Avenue, this morning following a lingering illness.

Mr. Boyce was born in Winchester, N.H., and came to Troy 49 years ago and was employed for many years as boss tinsmith at F. O. Stiles & Co. He went into business for himself five years ago.

He was a member of the Albany Tinsmith Union and a member of the old Universalist church here, and was a trustee of that church when it was dissolved about 15 years ago.

Survivors include his widow, the former Myra Eddy; a niece, Mrs. Raymond Artherton of East Morris, Conn., and a nephew, Ralph J. Howe of Brattleboro, Vt.

The funeral will be held from the residence Saturday morning at a time to be announced later. Interment will be in Oakwood Cemetery.
