

[Boyle, George W.]

LITTLE FALLS — George W. Boyle, 98, former Herkimer County purchasing agent, a resident of the extended care unit of the Little Falls Hospital, died yesterday.

He was born in Little Falls. He attended public schools. He was a telegrapher and station agent here for the North Shore Railroad for many years.

He was a member of the Herkimer County Republican Club and served the City of Little Falls as an alderman, assessor and as a member of the board of public works. He also was a member of the Little Falls Board of Education and was the chief proponent for a second city reservoir, named in his honor upon completion.

He was a member of St. Paul's Universalist Church [and] its men's club and was an honorary deacon.

He was a member of the (Arch Masons)[illegible], the Elks, the Kiwanis and Moose Clubs and the Civic club. He also was a member of the Ziyara Temple of the Shrine, Utica.

He married Jennie Bailey. She died in 1932 [should be 1940].

He leaves four cousins, Miss Lucy Murphy and Mrs. Ellen J. Weldon, both of Pittsfield, Mass., and Mrs. Elizabeth White of Larchmont and Frank H. Murphy of Albany.

Funeral services will be at [at] 2 Wednesday from St. Paul's Universalist Church. Burial will be in the Church Street Cemetery.

Calling hours are 7 to 9 tonight and 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 Tuesday in the Newitt-Bly Funeral Home.

Masonic services will be [at] 7:30 Tuesday.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Monn. 27 Jul 1970