

[Brainard, Content]

DEATHS.

At Oxbow, Jefferson county, N.Y., of the dropsy in the head, on the 25th ult. [July 25], Mrs. Content, wife of Mr. E. Brainard [age 34]. Mrs. Brainard had been for several years a firm believer in the doctrine of God's impartial grace. And although she was in her last sickness at times partially deranged, yet in her lucid hours her mind was unshaken, and to a number of her attendants who anxiously inquired of her concerning her faith in the holiness and happiness of all men, her answers were uniformly that she was firm in her faith. She has left a disconsolate husband [Enos] and six small children to feel and mourn their loss. The consolations of the Gospel were administered to them, and the mourning relatives that were present, together with a large and respectable audience of sympathizing neighbors, on the 27th ult., by the writer of this article.

A. [Abner] Wood

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Sat. 18 Aug 1832
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 14 Aug 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY