

[Brandow, Agnes Van Horne]

VAN HORNESVILLE
MRS. ALFRED BRANDOW

After several months' illness, Mrs. Alfred Brandow passed away Saturday morning at 2:30, at the advanced age of seventy-six years.

She was born at this place where she has always resided and her maiden name was Agnes Van Horne, a descendant of the famous Van Home family from which this place bears its name.

She was married in 1872 to Alfred Brandow of Van Hornesville who survives. She was the daughter of Abram and Lydia Van Horne who died when she was a child. Mrs. Brandow was the last living member of the Van Home family at this place and very much respected. Besides her husband, two daughters survive, Mrs. John S. Huyck of Schuyler Lake and Mrs. Victor D. Springer of this place, and one grandson, Kenneth B. Huyck, Hartwick; also a sister, Mrs. Mary G. Van Horne, Amsterdam.

The funeral service was held Monday at 2:30 p.m. at her home. The Rev. Mr. Dix, pastor of the Universalist church of Fort Plain, officiated. Interment was made in the Van Horne plot in the village cemetery.
