

[Brayton, Clarence Willard]

DOLGEVILLE
CLARENCE W. BRAYTON

Clarence W. Brayton, a well known resident of this village for many years, died Sunday night at his home on State Street, following an illness of three years. Mr. Brayton was born in Newport, March 23, 1872, the son of the late Herman E. Brayton and Mary Fortune. In 1881 the family came to this village.

Mr. Brayton for a number of years had been in charge of the molding department of the Breckwoldt Sounding Board plant. He was a member of the Universalist Church, in which he had been a trustee, and also of Dolgeville Lodge No. (?), F. & A.M. He was married 30 years ago to Miss Olive Graham. He is survived by his wife, by a daughter, Miss Mary Brayton, and a son, Kenneth.

The funeral will be held from the late home at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and will be in charge of the local Masons. The Rev. C. A. Moulton will conduct the service, and burial will be in the Dolgeville Cemetery.
