

[Bronaugh, Hazel Marion Zahn]

Mrs. W. Bronaugh, Wife of Physician
Native of Brooklyn Was Active in Work of All Souls Church

Mrs. Hazel Marion Bronaugh, of 551 E. 24th St., wife of Dr. Welbourne F. Bronaugh, well known Brooklyn physician and surgeon, died early today in Caledonian Hospital after an illness of nine days. She was born in Brooklyn, the daughter of the late Edward C. and Mary E. Zahn. She would have been 34 years old on Oct. 19.

Mrs. Bronaugh was an active member of the All Souls Universalist Church, taking particular interest in women's affairs, parents' group activities and the Sunday School. She was a member of the Double Circle, woman's group of the church. Her husband is a deacon in All Souls Church.

Save for a few years when she attended high school in Plainfield, N.J., Mrs. Bronaugh lived all her life in this borough. She was a registered nurse. Her training as a nurse was received at the Kings County Hospital, where she was in charge of the operating room at the time of her marriage to Dr. Bronaugh on Oct. 17, 1929.

Mrs. Bronaugh was also an active member of the Parent-Teachers Association of P. S. 152.

Her husband, who has practiced in Flatbush for the last 10 years, is an assistant surgeon on the staffs of the Caledonian and Coney Island Hospitals. Also surviving are three daughters, Jeanne H., Dorothy B. and Alice Marion; three sisters, Mrs. Florence Bradley, Mrs. Melvina McNamara and Mrs. Jessie Truempy, and a brother, Albert J. Zahn.

Funeral services will be held in All Souls Church Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Cornelius Greenway, pastor, will officiate. Interment will be in Green-Wood Cemetery.
