On Wednesday, about midnight, in this village, occurred the death of Mrs. Wm. Brooks, in the 77th year of her age. For some time she had been in feeble health, and since Sunday night had been unconscious. Mrs. Brooks was born in Springfield, this county, and her maiden name was Morse. She had passed all her life in this vicinity, and a few years before her husband's death, which occurred in May [on the 15th], 1891, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of her wedded life. Only one child survives her, George Brooks, Esq., of this village. Three daughters are buried in Lakewood Cemetery. Mrs. Brooks was a member of the Universalist church and a lady whom all who knew her respected and loved. The funeral will take place from the house at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon.
