

[Brower, Edwin]

Edwin Brower

Edwin Brower, formerly of Brooklyn, died Monday at his home in Hartford, Conn., after a few days' illness caused by intestinal tumor. Mr. Brower was well known in banking and insurance circles, having been cashier of the Mercantile National Bank for a number of years and auditor of the Phoenix Insurance Company. He was an ex-president of the Hubbard Escort, a member of St. John's Lodge, F. and A.M., the National Provident Union and other societies. His widow, two sons and a daughter survive him. The Rev. J. Coleman Adams, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer [Universalist], in which Mr. Brower was an active member, officiated at the funeral services at Hartford, to-day.
