

[Brown, Alexander T.]

FUNERAL FOR A. T. BROWN CONDUCTED

City officials, friends and business associates today attended funeral services for Alexander T. Brown, Syracuse industrial leader and inventor, who died Thursday. Services took place at 2:30 o'clock at the Brown home, 726 W. Onondaga st.

Chancellor Charles Wesley Flint of Syracuse University, where Mr. Brown was long a member of the board of trustees, and Rev. Dr. Frederick W. Betts, pastor of First Universalist Church, officiated. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery.

Men whose acquaintance Mr. Brown had made while they labored in machine shops, factories and foundries in which he was interested paid tribute to the prominent industrialist and inventor yesterday. Many employes [employees] called at the Brown home between 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

City officials, executives of the Brown-Lipe Gear Company, of which Mr. Brown was for many years, until its recent sale to out-of-town interests, president, and of the industries, and close friends and business associates acted as bearers this afternoon.

Active bearers were A. B. Merrill, Dr. C. W. Webb, J. P. Hvland, J. T. R. Bell, E. R. Bishop, Mayor Charles G. Hanna, Lucius G. Lacey and Sam H. Cook.

Syracuse Journal, Syracuse NY, Mon. 4 Feb 1929

[Transcriber's note: A long list of honorary bearers is omitted here.]

Transcribed on 3 Nov 2023 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY