

[Brown, Elsie Eddy Rice]

MRS. JAMES G. BROWN

The death of Mrs. Elsie Eddy Rice Brown, well known Albion woman, occurred early Friday morning in her home on West Park St. following a painful illness of more than two years' duration.

She was born 74 years ago, the daughter of Abel and Eunice Eddy Rice. Her marriage to James G. Brown, a former Albion supervisor, was terminated by his death three years ago. She spent her entire life in Orleans County and since 1906 has made her home in Albion.

Mrs. Brown was a charter member of the Pullman Memorial Universalist Church and during the 40 years of its history has been interested and active in its affairs and served on many boards of its various societies. Only a few months ago she resigned as treasurer on the Ladies' Aid and Mission Circle. One of her significant services to the church was the presentation of a beautiful communion service as a memorial to her mother. Mrs. Brown also belonged to the Pine Needle Twig.

Her four children, Miss Elsie Brown, residing at home, Fred of the County House Road, Homer of Albion, and Jay of Cleveland, Ohio, live to survive her. She also leaves seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The funeral service was held Monday afternoon in her late home with the Rev. Lewis H. Robinson officiating. Burial was made in the Pendry Cemetery on the Brown family lot.

Mrs. Brown will be remembered by the many whose lives she enriched.

Orleans Republican, Albion NY, Wed. 27 Mar 1935