

[Brown, Emma R.]

MRS. EMMA R. BROWN

Mrs. Emma R. Brown, widow of Scott N. Brown, died at 2:30 a. m. today at her home. 341 East Castle-st. after an illness of six months. Death was due to heart failure.

Mrs. Brown was born in Truxton on February 13. 1849. Her education was received in the public schools of her native town and at the Cazenovia seminary. On February 24, 1875, she married in this city and has since lived here. Her husband died several years ago.

The deceased was a well known society woman. She was a member of the Eastern Star lodge, Daughters of Liberty and the Union lodge, Degree of Honor. In the latter organization she was a charter member and since its organization, eight years ago, held the position of financier. She was also an active member of the First Universalist church.

Mrs. Brown is survived by her mother, Mrs. Eveline Brown, two sons, Almeron and Earl W. Brown, and two sisters, all of this city. The funeral will be held at 2:30 on Monday from her late home. The Rev. F. W. Betts will officiate. Burial will be made in Oakwood cemetery.

Union lodge, Degree of Honor, will hold a special meeting at 8 o'clock this evening at the headquarters in the Bastahle building, to take action on the death of Mrs. Brown.

Syracuse Journal, Syracuse NY, Fri. 1 Nov 1901

Transcribed on 28 Dec 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY