

[Brown, Fred E.]

BROWN

Fred E. Brown, 81 years old, died in his home on Maple avenue Tuesday November 5, 1940. He was a kindly and friendly man and during his residence here of about seven years had won the high regard of all who knew him. He was a trustee of St. Paul's Universalist parish.

Besides his wife Mrs. Anna Boughton Brown, Mr. Brown is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Helen Luce and Mrs. Myrtle Wright, both of Norwalk, Ohio; seven sons, Morris Brown, Canandaigua; Melvin J. Brown, Elyria, Ohio; Lester Brown, Massilon, Ohio; George Brown, Salt Lake City, Utah; Wilbur Brown and Vernon Brown, both of Detroit, Mich., and Harold Brown, Ashland, Ohio; also one sister, Mrs. Mary Hurley of Ontario Center and a brother, Charles Brown of Sodus.

Funeral services were conducted from his late home Thursday afternoon, the Rev. J. [John] O. Bennett of Rochester, pastor of the Macedon Universalist church officiating. Burial will be made in Milan, Ohio, his former home.
