

[Brown, Samuel]

Funeral of Ex-Detective "Sam" Brown Held With Masonic Rites

The funeral services over the remains of ex-Detective Samuel Brown were held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his late residence, No. 66 Lake avenue, and from the Second Universalist Church at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. D. [David] M. Kirkpatrick officiating. The services were attended by a delegation of the police department, including Superintendent Cleary, and representing the Police Benevolent Association, of which Mr. Brown was a member. The services were conducted by Rochester Lodge, No. 660, F. and A. M., and Cyrene Commandery, No. 39, acted as escort. The bearers were the following Masons: B. Frank Enos, Robert Sloan, George Long, Edwin B. Chapin, Thomas Brooks and Edwin B. Fisk. The church altar and the casket were lavishly strewn with floral emblems, among which were a Maltese cross from Cyrene Commandery and a square and compass from Rochester Lodge.

The interment took place at Mt. Hope, where the Masonic rites were observed, Past Master Taylor officiating.
