

[Brown, Schuyler V.]

DEATHS.

In Ogden, Monroe county, on the 2d inst., of consumption, Mr. SCHUYLER V. BROWN, aged 28 years.

Mr. Brown had been residing in Grand Blanc, Monroe county, Michigan, from which place he and his wife recently came to Ogden; partly for his health, and partly to visit their friends in that place. He survived his journey but a few weeks. He has left a wife and a large circle of other relatives and friends, to mourn their loss. May they recollect that what is their loss, is his unspeakable gain.

The fear of death had no place in the mind of Mr. Brown, for his faith in the salvation of all men [sic] was rather strengthened than otherwise by the approach of his dissolution. He hailed with joy, and the expression of "glory to God," every indication of his approaching departure to the world of spirits. He requested that the sermon which should be preached on the occasion of his funeral, be published in the Magazine and Advocate, and that a copy be sent to each of the members of his father's family, as they could not be present. It seems, too, that they are all believers in the doctrine of endless misery. It is hoped that the instance now before them, will convince them that Universalism will not only do to live by, but to die by.
